

19th Annual of the TREBBIA International Awards Ceremony

Sunday, October 17, 2021, 20.00

Summer refectory of the Strahov Monastery in Prague

19:00 - 19:45 welcome drink

20:00 - 21:30 presentation of the TREBBIA International Awards

Live broadcast of the ceremony by the Czech and Slovak Television will be streamed in real time at 20:00 CET worldwide via Trebbia Foundation YouTube channel in simultaneous English translation.

Programme:

Lobkowitz trio - Lukáš Klánský (piano), Jan Mráček (violin), Ivan Vokáč (cello)

Alena Miro, soprano

Aleš Briscein, tenor

LAUREATES OF THE TREBBIA INTERNATIONAL AWARD 2021

TREBBIA AWARD FOR ARTISTIC ACHIEVEMENT

Ludvík Feller – Germany / Czech Republic - painter and pedagogue

Jozef Leikert – Slovakia – poet, novelist and pedagogue

TREBBIA AWARD FOR SUPPORT OF CULTURE AND ART

David Hercky – USA / Israel – businessman, diplomat, philanthropist and art collector

Peter Weibel – Austria / Germany – curator and artist

TREBBIA AWARD FOR CONTRIBUTION TO THE DIALOGUE OF NATIONAL CULTURES

Jelena Siljadžić – Bosnia and Herzegovina / Czech Republic – film and festival producer

Antonín Jaroslav Liehm (In memoriam) – Czech Republic – publicist, writer, film and literary critic

TREBBIA AWARD FOR LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT

Juraj Jakubisko – Slovakia / Czech Republic – film director

During the gala evening there will be a traditional charity auction of paintings by Jiří Anderle, Michael Rittstein, Joachim Elzmann, Martin Šárovec, Barbora Kysilková –
Barbar.

The laureates will be presented with a diploma and bronze TREBBIA statuette created by academic sculptor Stefan Milkov.